LEGIONAIRES

Dear Alma American Legion Post 224

Checkout our website for up-to-date information...
www.americanlegionpost224.org

As I near the two year mark of you allowing me to serve as your commander, I find myself humbled by the opportunity to grow within your Legion Post and get to know you in the process. It has been a unique and rewarding experience. As some things have changed within our post, there is one thing that remains constant; the honor that we show to one another as members of our armed forces. The past year has provided opportunity for growth. We have become green with our energy usage; we will soon participate in our 3rd year of the 100 mile garage sale; an event that has become a major fundraiser for the Auxiliary as well as the Legion. Anyone having items for this sale is asked to bring them to the legion on Wednesday and Thursday, May 4 & 5 from 2:00pm to 6:00pm. If you are in need of help or have questions, contact Kathy Jepsen, 715-305-1434.

Our spaghetti fundraiser was a success. Our profits for the single event exceeded $2,000. I am grateful to all who have provided so much assistance to make this happen. You're amazing! There are many things on our schedule to occur between now and your next newsletter. We will celebrate Memorial Day and honor our departed veterans on May 30, 2022 followed by a potluck at the Legion Hall. Our guest speaker will be your new mayor of Alma, Bob Gross. Finally, we have perhaps our biggest fundraiser on Saturday, August 13, 2022 - Dad's Belgian Waffles. If you haven't dined with us before at this event, you really need to. They are Oh, So, Good!!!

Respectfully,
Gary Jepsen, Commander

She is not from our Alma Area School District, but is a High Honor student at Mondovi Area High School. Hannah Noll is a granddaughter of one of our members, Kathy Noll. Hoping to see and have contact with you at our Fund Raisers. Have a fabulous summer.
